Overview

Impressive Armenia

Did you know that Armenia is home to the oldest winery in the world? Or that Noah's Ark is said to be hidden in the ice of Mount Ararat? Armenia is an impressive country. Here you will get to know Yerevan, one of the oldest inhabited cities in the world - built 29 years before Rome in its current form - which is also called the "pink city" because of the natural color of the houses. And if you get hungry after exploring, you can satisfy it with Lavash, an intangible UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Impressive, isn't it?

The rest of the day we will spend on the way to and at Lake Sevan. During the drive we will enjoy impressive views inside Vardenyats mountain pass (formerly also called Selim mountain pass). We discover Armenian cuisine

Private transfer: about 125km and 2 h

Today we will meet two young ladies who are rediscovering Armenian cuisine for themselves. They will tell and teach us something about Armenian cuisine in a private workshop. After we have our delicious lunch here and have a look at Dilijan, we will go on our way again. The final destination for today is Lastiver village. (B/L/D)

Day 4

A day in nature

Today is meant for outdoor activities. Whether it be a hike in the depths of the Lastiver forest, a tour on horseback or crazy zipline flights, there should be something for everyone. In the evening we will enjoy a wonderful meal of locally produced food before ending the last hours of the day with local wine and cheese around a campfire. (B/-/D)

Admire picturesque scenes

Private transfer: about 100km and 2 h

On our way to the Lori region we will pass picturesque scenes. Once there, we will have the opportunity to rest after lunch and prepare for a fabulous evening. For the particularly adventurous, there is also the option of swimming in a nearby beautiful lake or tackling a short hike. (B/-/D)

The day of urban adventures

Private transfer: about 150km and 2,5 h

It is time to leave again. Back in Yerevan, it's the day of urban adventures. Sightseeing, museums, wine bars and, of course, city life. Get to know the post-Soviet capital and its unusual charm together with locals. We will spend the evening in one of the citizens' favorite restaurants before catching a glimpse of Yerevan's special atmosphere. (B/-/D)

Your Guides: Arman and Gerard

Hello, we are Arman and Gerard and we are happy to accompany you through Armenia.

We are school friends, we love to hike and we can't wait to introduce you to our home country. We have been hiking together since 1999 and are still passionate about it. We enjoy working with small businesses, bakeries, etc. and are always proud to show others what Armenia has to offer.

Join us on our adventure and discover the fascinating hidden treasures and people of this region.

Day 7

The last full day in Armenia

Private transfer: about 25km and 40 min

We go on a short tour to the only surviving Pagan temple in Armenia. The temple is located on a picturesque platform from which the Azat River Gorge can be admired. We spend some time around and inside the temple before heading towards the small village of Garni. Here we will be able to observe the art of making a traditional Armenian dish - Armenian Lavash bread. With our own lavash still warm, we will enjoy lunch at a local restaurant with a beautiful view. After lunch, we'll head back to Yerevan, where we'll have the opportunity to explore the city a bit more on our own before sitting down for a final dinner. Now it is time to say goodbye. We exchange our impressions and think back to the unique experience before going to bed for the last time in Armenia. (B/-/D)

Day 8

See you soon, Armenia!

Private transfer: about 12km and 20 min

One last time we wake up in Armenia. After a delicious breakfast at the hotel, we head back to the airport where the adventure comes to an end. (B/-/-)
